

Office bingo

Stuck at your desk all day?

Break up the work day with office bingo!

Simply nominate someone to be the bingo caller and give everyone playing a printable bingo card.

By using an online number generator, the bingo caller emails everyone a number every 30 minutes. The first person to get a full house must hit reply all to announce they've won!

Have a suggested donation of £2 to enter, with a prize for the winner and all donations going towards life-changing dementia research.
