

Quiz Round Art & Literature

Round:

Wipeout:

Questions

Q1. The 1939 novel Gadsby by Ernest Vincent Wright was written without using a specific letter from the alphabet. Which letter was it?

Q2. Which Shakespeare character said: "Is this a dagger which I see before me, the handle toward my hand? Come, let me clutch thee"

Q3. This is an alternative title for a best-selling thriller novel. Name the original title. Young Woman Punted a House for Dangerous Flying Insects.

Q4. In 1962, Andy Warhol produced many paintings depicting all the different flavours of Campbell's Soup, which ranged from tomato through to asparagus. How many of these paintings did Warhol make?

Q5. What are the full names of the two main characters in the 50 Shades of Grey novels?

Q6. Who painted the Sistine Chapel?

Q7. This is an alternative title for a 1967 Colombian novel. Name the original title. A Century of Being on Your Own.

Q8. What three objects make up the Deathly Hallows from the Harry Potter book series?

Q9. Which of these is not a work by Gilbert and Sullivan? The King and I, Pirates of Penzance, The Grand Duke, H.M.S. Pinafore, The Yeoman of the Guard.

Q10. This is an alternative title for a 1965 science fiction novel. Name the original title. Bank of Sand.

Answers

A1. The letter e. The letter does not feature in any of its 50,000 words.

A2. Macbeth.

A3. The Girl who Kicked the Hornet's Nest, by Stieg Larsson.

A4. 32. Note: Accept answers between 30-34.

A5. Christian Grey and Anastasia Steele.

A6. Michelangelo.

A7. 100 Years of Solitude, by Gabriel Garcia Márquez.

A8. Elder Wand, Resurrection Stone, Cloak of Invisibility. Note: Accept wand, stone, cloak.

A9. The King and I. That is actually a work by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

A10. Dune, by Frank Herbert.