Want to inject some festive fun into your partnership fundraising?

Then look no further...

Fast festive ideas...

The ultimate Christmas selfie contest: Dress as a snowman or wrap yourself in Christmas paper. Ask for a small donation and offer a prize for the happiest snapper!

Sponsored Rudolph nose: Ask colleagues to sponsor you and wear it on all work calls leading up to Christmas.

Add a donation ask to your Out of Office emails: Easy peasy!

Guess the name of the festive bear or the number of sweets in a jar: Share a picture of the bear/jar on your internal channels. Ask for donations and guesses to go on your usual fundraising page.

Christmas WFH bingo: Create a bingo card with Christmas themed items that team members have photographed themselves with and tick off. Pay to play.

Christmas Pyjama Day: Look out for an email about our very first festive PJ day, due to take place on 16 December.

Cracking Christmas ideas...

Secret Santa Split: If your Secret Santa budget is usually £10, donate £5 to charity this year and buy a gift with the other £5. Post the gifts to each other.

Virtual book club or poem competition: Pick some festive reads and ask for donations to join the group.

Share your crafty Christmas skills: Hold a virtual class showing colleagues how to make a Christmas wreath or the perfect yule log. Ask for donations to join.

Desk decorating competition: Upload a photo of your decorated home working station. Donate to enter with a small prize for the winner.

Santa run: Who can clock up the most miles before Christmas?

Polar plunge: Why not get sponsored to brave the Great British sea? Photo evidence is required!

Work Christmas playlist: Donate to add a song of your choice. The final playlist is shared on internal channels to ease you through the final week of work!

Parties and celebrations...

Glad rags dress up day: If you’re not having a Christmas party this year make a donation and wear the outfit you would have rocked at the party.

Virtual Christmas party: Invite a comedian or magician to perform and ask for donations for staff to attend.

No party? If you’re not having a Christmas party this year, why not donate this year’s entertainment budget in lieu of an office Christmas party. Check out www.xmaspartyheroes.co.uk

Mulled wine and minced pies: Join your colleagues for a virtual festive lunchbreak.

Pudding party! Donate to take part, you’re randomly assigned a colleague’s name and then you send them a pudding or dessert to enjoy!

Booze ban: Ask staff to donate the money they would have spent on booze during Christmas nights out.
